In 2014, The Columbus Foundation and the Osteopathic Heritage Foundation launched a three-year collaboration – the Capital Improvement Initiative Funding Partnership – to support capital campaigns and projects designed to improve the delivery, quality and efficiency of nonprofit programs and services in central Ohio.

Combined with individual capital investments, the foundations awarded nearly $4 million in support for 26 organizations providing exceptional programs and services with an emphasis on those serving vulnerable populations.

Today, the foundations are proud to recognize and celebrate the organizations receiving capital support in 2014. We thank you for attending today and for sharing our collective commitment and passion for improving the quality of life for everyone in our community.
